Welcome to Hotel Diplomat Wellness & Retreat

We have created a sanctuary in the heart of Stockholm where body, mind and soul can receive a much-needed break. Hotel Diplomat Wellness & Retreat is a close collaboration with Mia Hjalmarsson and offers the very best in skincare. Here you will find a wide selection of classic favourites as well as innovative treatments with elements of modern spirituality - a place where we consider the holistic idea that body and soul belong together. At the end of each treatment, you will inhale an energizing aroma balm that makes you feel energized and ready to take on the rest of your day.
